

Crow's Nest Application Spring 2017

Name:

U-Number:

Major:

Year:

Desired Position:

News Reporter / Arts & Life Reporter

- News, art and general assignment articles (at least 1 a week)
- Develop and provide story ideas for staff and contributors
- Localize national and international news

Advertising Manager

- Interact with local businesses for advertisement opportunities
- Complete advertisement payment application
- Plan and organize incoming revenue and managing budget expenditures

Graphic Designer

- Create graphics (graphs, maps, charts) to pair with stories
- Work with the staff to prepare the paper on Sundays
- Create newsletters and flyers for the Crow's Nest

How many hours a week (including reporting/writing/designing) are you willing to dedicate to The Crow's Nest?

What other obligations will you have during the Spring 2017 semester (Jobs, clubs, etc.)?

Describe what makes you qualified for the position that you're applying for. Why do you want it and what do you hope to accomplish?

For editing and reporting positions: Attach your résumé and at least two reporting samples (can be from a previous reporting class or personal blog); briefly describe your experience writing/editing.

For Advertising Manager position: Attach résumé; describe your experience working with local businesses and finances.

For Graphic Designer position: Attach résumé and at least three design samples; describe your knowledge of design and using design software.

Submit completed applications to drodriguez7@mail.usf.edu